

Name: _____

Grammar Review

Nouns – write the noun from the sentence given.

1. Mary went to school yesterday. _____
2. The rule is no running. _____
3. George went to the zoo on Friday. _____
4. The cat ran as fast as he could to try and catch the mouse. _____
5. The rain fell on the old little house. _____
6. Tomorrow Susan and Jennifer are planning a party. _____
7. When the goalie stretched for the puck, he missed by a few inches.

8. The Olympic winter games were held in Vancouver. _____
9. Football is a great sport. _____
10. I love to read books. _____

Verbs- circle the main (first) verb in the sentence.

1. Louis studies design at the Institute of art.
2. He has a philosophy.
3. The Space Shuttle flew so fast it nearly crashed.
4. The bear dove over the rocks to try to catch the fish.
5. When the snow fell it was beautiful.
6. As the teacher wrote on the board the class waited.
7. My car ran out of gas.
8. The cheerleader kicked so high that she nearly split her pants!
9. When the school cheered the boys' team played harder.
10. The turtle ran so slowly that the rabbit ran him over.

Adjectives-write the adjective from the sentences given

1. The yellow tulip means hopeless love. _____
2. Roses may be anxious or graceful. _____
3. Of course, the olive is peaceful. _____
4. The carnation has unhappy meanings. _____
5. I want my bike to run faster than my brothers. _____
6. My uncle has a big dog. _____
7. The brown cat purred with love. _____
8. Great White sharks are dangerous to anyone who swims in the ocean.

9. I loved to watch the giant fish in the aquarium swim by.

10. This summer I saw my little cousin for the first time.

Adverb-circle the adverb from the sentences given

1. The huge dog ran quickly to Teresa.
2. Billy asked if he could walk fast to get a drink.
3. Snails crawl more slowly than slugs.
4. The fish swam quickly away from the shark.
5. The lion cautiously approached its prey.
6. Yesterday the wind blew constantly.
7. Carefully they pushed the large box outside.
8. Cary's cat howled when Tara stepped on its tail.
9. Coach McMullen shouted sternly at his players.
10. With a scream, the small child ran fast down the hall.

Preposition – write the preposition for the given sentences.

1. The cat climbed up the tree. _____
2. The dog jumped around the boy. _____
3. She gave it to them. _____
4. He worked until dawn. _____
5. Suzie turned around and bumped into the lady. _____
6. Please put your pencils down. _____
7. Don't forget to put your wallet in your purse. _____
8. I put my socks in the laundry. _____
9. The money was on the table. _____
10. The check is in the mail. _____

For each BOLD word in the following sentences, choose and the part of speech (grammar) and write it on the line. (there is one extra—be careful!!)

Noun	Verb	Adjective	Adverb
	Preposition	Conjunction

1. _____ He wrote a song for her.
2. _____ Johnny got dirty while he was climbing a tree.
3. _____ Lauren sighed dramatically when her mother asked her to do the dishes.
4. _____ My friends walked home after school.
5. _____ They slowly carried the piano up the stairs.